CAUGHNAWAGA'S GAME RACE.

WINS HANDICAP OVER THE HILL WITH TOP WEIGHT.

Odom Drives Him Home First by a Small Margin in .he Best Pinish of the Day --Grenade's Rancho Del Paso--Almanzor Makes New Steeplechase Record.

Five favorites won at Morris Park yesterday afternoon and one track record was day was the last, a handicap for three-yearolus and upward at a mile and a quarter over the hill. There were only three starters and they finished so close together that a big blanket would have covered the jockeys. John Sanford's Caughnawaga, carrying 123 pounds, was the favorite, opening at 9 to 10, ding to even money. Surmise, in receipt of twenty-six pounds from the Sanford colt, went from 8 to 5 to 5 to 2, while Brigand, who got twenty-one pounds from the favorite, was lowered from fours to threes. Surmise, with Gannon up, set a very slow pace to the top of the hill, which just suited the top weight, and when the trio straightened out for the long run to the wire, they ran like a team, with Caughnawaga in the middle. Odom went to the whip at the final furlong and the Sanford colt responded with superb gameness, the others hanging on like grim death. It was a case of whipping right up to the line of the judge's vision, where Caughnawaga won by three parts of a length, Surmise beating Brigand by a nose. The time was 2:08 3-5, compara-

Sydney Paget's St. Gatien colt, a 6 to 5 favorite, captured the Rancho Del Paso Stakes for two-year-olds, run down the entire length of the Eclipse course. Grenade was always the leader, winning easily by a length and a half in the fast time of 1:09 4-5.

In the Meadowbrook Steeplechase at about three miles, only two gentlemen riders, Mr Evans and Mr. Mordecai, participated. There were eight starters, with J. E. Widener's Somerset, the favorite, unable to finish in the money. P. M. Nagle's Manilian, second choice, and J. Gerard's Almanzor, 6 to 1, went off at a killing gult, leading the others such a chase that nobody could get up. At the end of two miles Almanzor took the lead and won in a gallop by five lengths in 6:11, clipping four seconds off the best record for the course, made by Cheval d'Or, who for the course, made by Cheval d'Or, who won this race last year in 6:15.

In a big field of maidens who ran in the first race at six and a half furlongs, Withers course, H. J. Morris's Prince Ching, the favorite, came from behind in the stretch and won in a canter by six lengths in 1:20 2-5.

Tommy Burns made all the running with F. R. Hitchcock's Greencrest, the choice in the third race for maiden two-year-old colts and geldings, Eclipse course, winning rather easily by three parts of a length in 1:10. By a suberb ride through the last quarter of a mile Fuller succeeded in landing Conundrum, favorite, winner of the fifth event at a mile.

The Fiddler to Be Allowed to Race Again in a Few Days.

Although the stewards gave out no official verdict, it was stated on good authority at Westchester yesterday that there will be no further developments in The Fiddler case, and that T. T. Cromwell will be allowed to enter his gelding in future events at metropolitan tracks. There was a rumor affoat early in the day that some new evidence in the case was on the way here from St. Louis, but it did not materialize. The stewards have conducted a most searching investigation and feel convinced, it is said, that there was nothing wrong with The Fiddler's race on Saturday.

The investigation as to the race run by John A. Drake's Trinity Bell ten days ago has resulted in a dismissal of the case. It was charged that the mare had shown an undue reversal in form at a time when her owner bet a large amount on her and burned up the ring. But after going over the sheets and looking into the mare's previous races it was decided that sufficient ground for action did not exist. So Mr. Drake will not retire from the turf just yet, as he threatened to do when the victory of Trinity Bell caused so much unfavorable comment.

A number of sales were made during the races yesterday. August Belmont sold the running qualities of his two-year-old filly Beldame to Newton Bennington, price private, Beldame will go to Nursery Stud when her turf career is at an end. John E. Madden disposed of Widow's Mite to John Lamle for $1,000, and will sell both Burdette and Medal at auction on Friday. Mr. Cotton bought St. Jude and Captivator from L. V. Bell to be schooled over the jumps. Frank Farrell bought back his filly Hoodwink, who was claimed out of a selling race last week. The investigation as to the race run by who was claimed out of a sening race last week.

There was a wild tip in circulation on F. H. Milden's Effie Sheppard in the first race. She was backed from 100 to 1 down to 40 to 1 and looked to have a chance when entering the stretch, where she was outrun.

Ascetic and Bartender for green acting at the post in the third race were placed on the schooling list.

Six of the eight starters in the Meadow-brook Steeplechase took up five pound penalties because they were ridden by professionals.

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 6. - The pretty grounds of the Merion Cricket Club, at Haverford, were made use of to-day by the lawn tennis players participating in the intercollegiate cham pionship tournament. Not one of the Princeton entries survived the two rounds in singles, and, judging from the form exhibited by Bishop of Harvard and Mahan of Columbia in their struggle of this morning, one of them may be the winner of the event, although Dewhurst, a freshman at Pennsylvania, who has been in the country only for about ten days and comes with a great reputation as the champion playor of New Zealand, is a dark horse, who may finally prove good enough to bring the honors to Pennsyl-

BEN JORDAN COMING. Will Sail for America This Month to Fight

Young Corbett. Ben Jordan is to come to this country again, after all. According to a despatch from San Francisco, the crack English featherweight is to sail from England on Oct. 10 prepared to fight Young Corbett for the championship. Morris Levy, matchmaker of the Hayes Valley A. C. of San Francisco, has heard di-rectly from Jordan. The latter cannot fight scheduled, because he will not have enough time in which to train. The battle, though, will take place in December. Jordan is to receive, it is said, $1,000 for expenses. He will train for the encounter at a place to be selected for him by the club. Corbett will leave for the Pacific Coast in a few days. He has a few matches on in some of the big cities out West, and these bouts, he thinks, will aid him in keeping in trim. Jordan, it is said, has agreed to meet Young Corbett at 126 pounds.

BOB FITZSIMMONS, MANAGER. Cornishman Takes Hank Griffin Under His Wing-Latter Arrives East.

Bob Fitzsimmons has turned manager, and in the future will pilot the affairs of Hank Griffin, the negro heavyweight of California. Griffin arrived in town from San Francisco vesterday. This is his first trip East. Griffin wants to fight anybody in the business. Fitz believes that he can make a real champion out of Griffin, and will give him several pointers about the manly art. Griffin did pointers about the many art. Orthin did not remain long in New York, for he accom-panied Fitz to Athens, Pa., where the Cor-nishman is to appear in a sparring bout with him this afternoon.

Regarding his future plans Fitz said: "My match with George Gardner is settled, and al match with deorge bardner is settled, and all that is necessary now to make it binding is for both of us to deposit our forfeits. This will be done as soon as we hear definitely from the officials of the Yosemite A. C. of San Francisco, where the battle is to be held."

The Manhasset Bay Yacht Club went out of com-mission last Saturday. There was a race for the club one design boats in the afternoon which was won by Stevens and Cole's Faicon. H. H. Rogers's steam yacht Kanawha has gone to Morris Heights to have new tubes put in her boiler and to be thoroughly overhauled. This yacht won the Lysistrata cup for steam yachts this year and will have to defend that trophy in next year's race. F. M. Smith is going to challenge for the cup, the race to be arranged for in June. Mr. Rogers will do all he can to improve the speed of the Kanawha and hopes to be again successful. The Newport 30-footers salled forty-five races this season off Newport. Pembroke Jones's Carolina won the championahip cup. She started forty-four times, was first 44 times, second 4 times. The Barbara was second with forty-four starts in firsts, it seconds and I third. Papure Whitney's Vaquero III. was third, with forty-one starts, 8 firsts, 7 seconds and 1 third. John R. Drezel's Raccoon was fourth and William G. Roelker, Jr.'s, Breezze, fifth.

WATERBOY WILL RACENOMORE

CHAMPION OF THOROUGHBREDS SUDDENLY GOES LAME.

Trainer Joyner Says He Cannot Start in the Brighton Cup, and May Never Go to the Post Again-Record of the Son of Watercress and Zealandria. If what was said at Morris Park vesterday is based upon fact, J. B. Haggin's Waterboy, considered by many to be the greatest racehorse in training, will never race again. It was with a feeling of amazement that horsemen learned that the horse had suddenly gone wrong and had been thrown out of training. A. J. Joyner had been putting him under a special preparation for the $10,000 Brighton cup race, to be run a week from next Tuesday, which would have wound up his campaign for this season, but two days ago Waterboy developed lameness and everything was declared off. Joyner said yesterday that it would be impossible to train Waterboy any more this year, and that, while an at tempt would be made to fit him for the races next season, it was doubtful whether he would ever be able to go to the post again. The trouble is in the right foreleg, underneath the pastern. While it has not been pronounced a breakdown, the horse is in such a condition as to warrant alarm on the part of his trainer and owner.

Sydney Paget, the manager of the Haggin stable, said that the horse was undoubtedly lame and would not start in the Brighton cup, but as to the nature of the injury he was not in a position to speak.

Waterboy's career has been the talk of the turf world. As a three-year-old he broke his shoulder, and his case seemed hopeless, but a well known veterinary took him in hand, and, after the son of Watercress and Zealandia had been hung up in a sling for three months, he was turned out for the rest of the season. He was able to for the rest of the season. He was able to stand training this year and readily developed sterling racing qualities. As a weight carrier over a distance of ground he was a real champion. He was victorious in the Suburban Renewal, at a mile and a quarter, at Sheepshead Bay, and then won the Brighton Handicap, at the same distance, in 2:03 1-5, a world's record for a circular track with 124 pounds on his back. cular track, with 124 pounds on his back.
His next triumph was in the Saratoga
Handicap, at a mile and a quarter, when,
with 127 pounds, he outclassed his field and was timed at 2:05 3-5. Waterboy was badly was timed at 210 3-5. Water by was stard beaten in the Saratoga cup, one mile and three-quarters, by Africander and Heno, but it was stated at the time that he was a trifle stale. He recovered his magnificent form in the $20,000 Century Stakes, at a cent form in the $20,000 Century Stakes, at a mile and a half, when, carrying 126 pounds, he disposed of The Picket, Heno, Hermis and Major Daingerfield in 2:31 3-5, a new record for the Sheepshead Bay track. He won more than $40,000 in stakes and purses.

A great deal of talk was caused by the proposed match between Waterboy and McChesney, arranged to be run at Brighton Beach last July. Waterboy was ready, but at the last moment McChesney went lame. There was no further chance for a match until after McChesney had won the Twin City Handicap, when the topic was revived. Trainer Joyner was willing, but Owner Haggin decided that Waterboy could not indulge in another race this year except the Brighton cup, at two miles and a quarter. Consequently, although he was eligible for various stakes at Gravesend in which McChesney started, Waterboy was kept in his stall. Some time ago Joyner said that it had not been decided to race Waterboy next year, but that if he got through with his Brighton cup engagement successfully he might be trained for another campaign, but this now seems to be out of the question, and in all probability the black horse will soon be retired to the Haggin stud.

Mr. Perkins of Providence, another member of the committee, was also absent, as well as Mr. Hanna, of Cleveland. Other members, Mr. Billings of Chicago, Mr. Devereux of Cleveland and J. Malcolm Forbes of Boston, are here.

E E Smathers of New York has bought of G. D. Sherman, Port Henry, N. Y. the three-year-old filly Sadie Mc, favorite in the Kentucky Futurity, to be trotted here on the first day of the meeting. The price paid was $20,000. Sadie Mc is in charge of Lon McDonald, who with Howland Russell, bought her as a yearling for $4,000, and sold her to Mr. Sherman for $10,000 as a two-year-old. McDonald broke her only last year and went slow with her this season until recently, when she showed sensational speed. She is by Peter the Great—Fanella, by Arion.

Kentucky Harness Races Postponed. LEXINGTON, Ky., Oct. 6. -It is still raining ere, and as a result the trotting of the $10,000 three-year-old Kentucky Futurity and the ther races, including the Tennessee 2:08 pacers, scheduled for the opening day of the Kentucky Breeders' Association fall meeting, will not be raced off until Thursday, a second postponement being necessary. There was little change in the Futurity betting to-night, though there is an added starter in Diadem. In pools, with the field sold out, the odds were 100 to 74 on Sadie Mac. In later betting she regained her previous prestige, selling for 100 to 50 for the field. The inclement weather doubtless was the cause of the great selling. E. E. Smathers did not attend the pool selling to-night.

Smathers Offers $80,000 for Dick Welles LEXINGTON, Ky., Oct. 6.-E. E. Smathers arrived to-day and says he feels confident of peating Lou Dillon at Memphis with Major beating Lou Dillon at Memphis with Major Delmar. He says that his horses are in good condition and that if he can drive his new trot-ting wonder a few times before the race he will enter it feeling assured of success. The rain has so crippled the meeting here that the horsemen are getting impatient. E. E. Smathers to-day sent Rome Respess an offer of $30,000 for the sensational Western three-year-old Dick Welles. It is believed that the deal will be consummated.

Willie Mack Whips Larry Burnes. Willie Mack of Brooklyn retrieved himself early yesterday morning by defeating pout in private. The combat was decided at Schenectady, N. Y., and Mack won in the at Schenectady, N. Y., and Mack won in the sixth round. The weight was 130 pounds, weigh in at 3 o'clock. The fight started shortly after midnight. It was a slashing battle as far as Mack was concerned. He rushed Burnes around the ring, planting blow after blow. In the third round Burnes had a shade the better of it. He landed often, but his blows lacked steam. In the fourth and fifth rounds Mack began to fight in real earnest. He pounded awny at Burnes's body and Jaw, and the latter was soon in distress. In the sixth, Mack knocked his man down twice, and would have finished him had not Burnes's seconds thrown up the sponge.

Spike Sullivan and Jack Blackson Fight a Monday night Spike Sullivan fought his second battle in this country since he returned from England. Sullivan met Jack Blackson of Chester, Pa., before the Chester Broadway A. C., Chester, Pa., before the Chester, Which was for six rounds, lasted the limit and was a draw. Sullivan's showing was far from being good. All through the fight he gave evidence of having gone back. Blackson, who is colored, fought gamely and took a severe gruelling, but Sullivan could not knock him out. Spike was not in the best of trim and began to puff after the first round.

Oldfield Disqualified. After the meet at Empire City track last A. R. Pardington, against Oldfield as a competitor. It was charged that he had dickered with the management for appearance money and that his entry was not in at the time set for the closing of entries. Referee Pardington announced yesterday that he would allow the protest and disqualify Oldfield. The record breaker will therefore get no prizes, but the records he made will stand, just the same. A. R. Pardington, against Oldfield as a com

IN THE FOOTBALL WORLD. Schedule of Games for To-day-Practice of the Teams.

The football schedule for to-day is small as to quantity, and in quality is not likely to develop anything very exciting. The local game brings Columbia and Hamilton together. Yale plays Wesleyan, and the size of the score at New Haven will be awaited with interest here, since Columbia has aiready met Wesleyan, whom she defeated 10 to 0. The games to-day follow:

Harvard vs. Bates, at Cambridge.
Yale vs. Wesleyan, at New Haven.
Princeton vs. Gettysburg, at Princeton.
Pennsylvania vs. Haverford, at Philadelphia.
Columbia vs. Hamilton, at Polo Grounds.
Indians vs. Bloomburg, at Carlisle.
Dartmouth vs. University of Vermont, sennington. Amherst vs. Bowdoin, at Amherst.

Amherst vs. Bowdoin, at Amherst.

CAMBRIDGE, Mass., Oct. 6.—The Harvard squad has been augmented this week by several promising men. Mercer, who formerly played half back on Holy Cross and is now a student in the second year class of the Harvard medical school, was in the line-up for the first time. He has played only two years in intercollegiate games and so is eligible for the Harvard team for two years. He is a fairly short man, weighs 205 pounds and is very fast and shifty on his feet. If he can arrange his medical school work favorably he will be out every afternoon, hereafter. Mason was the most prominent of the men who reported for the team yesterday. He is a third year law school man and played on the second eleven last fall. Toward the end of the year, after King was ruled out, he was one of the promising men for centre, but received an injury that put him out of the game. Before coming to Harvard he played on the University of Texas eleven. He was coached in passing the ball yesterday. Andy Marshall was the first man to be injured in the scrimmage with the second eleven. He was conched his left knee, the one that gave him considerable trouble last year. It is thought now that he will not be out of the game for more than a few days. Chester Robinson, also one of the candidates for guard, received a blow in the head which stunned him, but he recovered a short time after the practice. Capt. Marshall was out in togs again to-day and did light work. A new man in the line to-day was Pierce, a freshman from Andover. He is too light for the 'varsity line, but plays a hard game. Schoelkopf and Bowditch were in the line-up to-day. The work this week has not been especially satisfactory. The slump is undoubtedly due largely to the fact that Capt. Marshall has not been in the game.

Columbia plays Hamilton at the Polo Grounds this afternoon in her last unimportant game of the season. There is every confidence that the team will make a good showing in view of its recent excellence in its game with Union. The Hamilton men, strong and heavy, are confident, however, of holding the local eleven to a low score.

The eleven's practice vesterday was more of holding the local eleven to a low score.

The eleven's practice yesterday was more arduous than has been the custom the day before a game. A hard half hour's practice was held with the scrub, in which the varsity scored three times. The scrub, however, played spiritedly and at one time made gains through the line aggregating forty yards. E. B. Bruce practised again yesterday and will play this afternoon, as will J. C. Tomlinson, another veteran, who reported yesterday. Donovan and Willard for the college team and Thorpe for the 'varsity did the best work.

ITHACA, N. Y., Oct. 8.—Capt. Hunt and the Cornell coaches are delighted over the results of the big mass meeting held to-day in Library Hali, Cornell University, for the purpose of awakening the undergraduates to a realization of the needs of the Cornell football squad. At this meeting, President Jacob Gould Schurman spoke, his attitude being decidedly in favor of football, and he said that he wished that all men of football ability who were interested in the sport would come out and assist in the development of the team. He said that it was his desire to see Cornell occupy as high a place in football as it held in the aquatic world, Coaches Purcell and Porter also made speeches.

The game with Niagara University schedspeeches.

The game with Niagara University scheduled for to-morrow has been cancelled, and the entire week will be devoted to a careful schooling in Cornell's formations. Cornell has a hard game with Colgate on Saturday, and the coaches are working for an exhibition of team work in that contest.

Forming Association to Centrel Tretting in the West.

Lexington, Ky., Oct. 6.—There was to have been a meeting of representatives of the mile trotting tracks here to-day for the purpose of perfecting the proposed organization to control racing in the West, but United States Senator J. W. Bailey, who is chairman of the committee appointed at Cleveland to look into the advisability of forming the club, was not here and the meeting was delayed.

In the West, but United States Senator J. W. Bailey, who is chairman of the committee appointed at Cleveland to look into the advisability of forming the club, was not here and the meeting was delayed.

With these old players behind the 'varsity it was thought they would put up a good stiff practice, but only at times did good football crop out, and then it was generally marred by holding or using hands in the interference. Corson, who injured his bad knee on the first play to-day, was forced to leave the field, Mulford taking his place. Corson's injury will not, however, keep him out of to-morrow's game.

The 'varsity only once got off a good run, and that was one for fifty yards by Smith on a fake kick. Smith scored on the play but was brought back because Stewart had used his hands.

The defence was not so good as the day before and the scrub had little trouble in getting through for big gains, due very often to the poor backing up of the half backs.

St. Francis Xavier High School football team defeated the Cutler School team at Columbia Oval yesterday afternoon by the score of 17 to 0. The Cutler lads were outweighted and could not withstand the heavy rushes of their opponents. Nevertheless they played a good game against so big a handleap. The punting of Eggleston was a feature.

HAMILTON, N. Y., Oct. 6.—The Colgate football team is rounding into good form under the coaching of James E. Hatch, who was captain of the Williams team last year. Two games of the schedule have been played, one on Sept. 26 with West Point, in which neither side scored, and the other with St. Lawrence last Saturday, which Colgate won by the score of 40 to 0. The rest of the schedule follows: Oct. 10, Cornell at Ithaca; Oct. 17, Syracuse University at Syracuse; Oct. 31, Rochester University at Hamilton; Nov. 7, Williams at Willamstown; Nov. 14, Hamilton College at Hamilton. Hamilton College at Hamilton.

An exciting game, the first of a series of three, was played between the Adler and Fowler school teams at Westchester yesterday after-noon. Though Fowler School was unable noon. Though Fowler School was unable to score the boys put up a good game, although outweighted at least ten pounds to a man. The first touchdown was scored by Thompson of Adler School after eleven minutes of play. He plunged through the line for twenty yards and kicked a goul from a difficult point. Fowler School boys held their opponents well after that and kept the ball out of danger by punting at critical stages. Both teams played hard, straight football in the second half, but neither could gain any advantage. The final score was Adler School, 6; Fewler School, 0.

Con Coughlin Has Not Quit the Ring. Sam Fitzpatrick yesterday informed iun reporter that there is no truth in the report that Con Coughlin, the big fighter. has quit the ring. Sam said: "Coughlin did the best he could against Bob Fitzsimmons, but he was up against one of the best men in the business. I am prepared to match Coughlin against any of the big fellows, barring Fitz and Jeffries."

In the recent women's championship at Wheaton the low score was 94, and the thirty-second score 120, while to-day there were three to play off at 116 for admission to the third sixteen. Miss Adair is stronger and heavier than her foremost rival, Mrs. Charles T. Stout, and therefore uses her arms more than the former American champion. The British champion addresses the ball in the aggressive manner of North Berwick, the style shown here by Norman and Mansfield Hunter of the Oxford and Cambridge team, and she of the Oxford and Cambridge team, and she strikes very surely without any preliminary waste of strokes. She has a fine, full swing, but finishes with the club head out in front of the shoulder, instead of following through with the graceful swing of the leading American women players. In iron plays and short approaches Miss Adair's quickness suggested Findlay S. Douglas, and, like him, she has a tendency to overplay on approaches. In putting the visitor missed haif a dozen fair chances, but this may have been due to nervousness. The strongest impression made by the visitor was on her long game, although Mrs. Stout and Miss Curtis will hold her fairly in this department. There was a large attendance of onlookers.
